

TRUTH AND UNDERSTANDING

A FELLOW BROTHER AND FRIEND

This is an open letter to all who open this hard drive, to those who truly seek the TRUTH and UNDERSTANDING.

Over six years ago I was a self-engulfed, prideful and unfulfilled human being. I had served my country and was, at that time, making a large amount of money working as a government contractor. I was prideful, in good shape, and living the dream of dual incomes with my wife having no children. My simple plan was to pay off the house and all outstanding debt and then finally travel, enjoying my retirement after a long 22-year career that had taken its toll on me physically and mentally. I grew up in a Christian home, my parents raised me in a Biblical manner however I rebelled against them and the Bible. I always believed, but had no interest in following Jesus Christ or reading the Bible, as I felt it was both too difficult to read and that it was quite boring.

In November of 2012 my teammates and I were in Baghdad eating breakfast at a large table discussing the problems that were facing America. The conspiratorial term “Fema Camps” came up in conversation and I laughed it off, calling my friend a conspiracy theorist. He dared me to read about them and draw my own conclusions. Curiosity got the best of me and I conducted an on-line search of these camps. What I saw reflected me back to the Book of Revelation on how Christians would be killed for their faith. I always blew this off, saying America was too strong, and would never bow to a one world ruler such as the antichrist. I would be long gone before this affected me. So, I thought.

What I saw and studied on the screen before me provoked a vision in which horror gripped me and took me back to the Tribulation movies my mother used to take me to when I was young. Was this actually happening? Is this TRUE? I did only what I could do; I looked up, called out to Jesus Christ and He answered me, instantly. It was that simple. The Book of Jonah speaks of a similar experience. Jonah after being tossed overboard by his shipmates begins to drown, he feels helpless and as the seaweeds entangle him, he is dragged down to the sea. Jonah cries out to God, and God hears him. I too was running away from God, I too had fear brought upon me to bring me back and when he answered, the fear was gone, in an instant. The very presence of God filled my small room that day, his Holy Spirit came into my life, a change that was so profound, my life of drinking, drug use, pornography and other sins came to a screeching halt.

It was in fear, I sought the Lord, the only source for pure truth, light and life somehow then I knew he was the correct path. Many people condemn fear, and say it is a tool of religious leaders to assert control. Fear is sometimes what it takes to break your pride, fear is what it takes to bring the sheep running back to the shepherd to be saved from the wolf’s mouth, fear is a useful tool that God will use to save your eternal soul, if you let him. Fear was a tool the Lord Jesus Christ used to bring me to repentance. It is always when we find ourselves in no win situations that we think seek him with our complete hearts, for most, not all, this is such the case. This action brings about humility, a trait that opens the lines and communication to the Lord Jesus Christ, whereas pride cuts them off and separates us from Him. The flip side to this, can be anger and bitterness and a retaliatory reaction blaming Jesus Christ for the situation that you may find yourself in. The enemy knowing this, will fuel this anger and bitterness, and it will continue to manifest and compound it inside you; overwhelming and consuming you. I know, as in my personal trials I have felt this anger, resentment and bitterness. Additionally, the enemy, satan is the prince of this world meaning he has a certain amount of authority here to rule. If the Lord had completely given over the world to satan we would be living in a much different place, if we were living at all. Still, satan offered all the kingdoms (yes all) to Jesus in exchange for worship, how could he offer Jesus something that does not belong to him? This is part of the gigantic lie in which we live. Satan has rulership here, not complete authority, but rulership.

I knew about Jesus, yes this is true, but I did not know him, I had no relationship (a state of connection) with him. If the Bible is true then he offered up his life for me, personally and what did I offer Him? At this point in my life, I had offered nothing, to him. Sure, maybe I went to church, or sang some songs, but none of that was for Him, that was for me to just “checking the block”. Thinking in my heart, yup, I am saved, good to go. You see, following Jesus Christ (putting your heart into it) it is like anything else. How many out there put their heart into their job, promotion, children’s activities, sports, their bodies? Do you see where I am going? Jesus says in the Bible he would rather you be cold in the heart than luke-warm, (partial follower) I always wondered why. It is quite simple if you think about it, cold means, you do not claim him, or his Word. Luke-warm means you do, claim both him and his Word, and when you do that when you claim God in your life you had better “walk the walk”. In other words, you are accountable as an ambassador to Him directly and His Word is your accountability checklist. Not what the preacher says, not what you feel is right, but His Word is the standard, so you need to have your heart in it, and it in your heart like you would for any other activity that “catches your heart”.

The Word of God has been bashed and discriminated against by those not even knowing the contents or the laws of humanity that are outlined therein, much less caring about them. As a society we have made our own rules all the while ripping down the Ten Commandments of God from the government buildings where laws are manifested and enforced. Instead we now have exalted his statue (satan) and likeness in places all over America all for our own self destruction and ultimately his gratification. We have no idea the heaping judgements we are piling on ourselves in doing so. We do this all in the name of equality, fairness and co-existence while we sleep under the spell of the enemy of humanity himself, satan; allowing him to simply sit back and say, they did this to themselves, and the answers to their “test” were with them all the time. We have exchanged love for tolerance, and good for evil. We praise the filthy and demonic abominable acts of people and condemn those who attempt to live righteously in the sight of God. We now listen to the destitute immoral who lecture us on morality and kindness. Our “human rights experts” praise the killing of the innocent in the womb in the name of women's rights, on the altar of convenience. We seek the advice of talk shows and their hosts instead of researching God's Word or coming to him on our knees for prayer and counsel. We go to pills, for every mental disorder, becoming addicted and dependent on medication, that drastically alters our mental state. Our children are overdosed, unhealthy, overweight, mentally stressed, and have zero knowledge of God; then we dump them off at the "state of education" every day at eight in the morning until the afternoon more than likely taking little care about the curriculum. Most of our conversations with our children end up in arguments, and to their room where they are on the phone or in front of an Xbox. Understand this; every problem we face in this world EVERY PROBLEM stems from a spiritual fight on some level; we have denied this, and covered it, and even laughed at it. Take for example a couple, (boyfriend and girlfriend) who decide to live together, they are in fornication, sex outside of wedlock (yes, I am guilty). Now the girl gets beat up by the boyfriend, the enemy has the right to be there, they are in willful sinful acts against God. How can Jesus intervene and have the legal authority to intervene? As a Deputy, I can promise you this, we have very few "married domestics" compared to people "shacking up" and their domestic issues. Again, your life is a testimony either for you, or against you, the Word, is the Life Handbook how would your life stand up in a courtroom do you know; do you care? Again, my friends, I point the finger at myself first, but when I gave my life to Him, I was/am all in, good or bad, no matter what. I believe; therefore, I follow, which means obedience and faith. Do not be half-hearted, stand, and be strong he will strengthen you and put you where you need to be, physically, and spiritually.

The signs we are seeing unfolding to this point have been reflected in the Word of God; some are obvious in His Word and some take some study. Jesus said in His Word what we are to look for in the last of days. In three chapters of the New Testament he outlines a list of things that will occur in the world near the end and also the behavioral changes that will occur in people. People have made every excuse not to acknowledge these signs. People have put their trust in their politically biased news source, or other news outlets that focus more on the Hollywood lifestyles than the rapidly changing world in which they live, a world succumbing to increased labor pains (earthquakes, flooding, famine, flooding and hate among people). Yes, these are labor pains, as it is a Kingdom of God and the kingdom of satan being birthed. God is birthing a Kingdom, contractions are the equivalent to earthquakes, and flooding to the breaking of waters held by dams. Many people have labored to bring the seeds of Truth, to the unbelievers however the hearts of them who do not care to know it have grown colder and colder and very few have been receptive to these seeds. Some have their own presuppositions of how the last of days will occur, I ask you what are they based on; your own personal knowledge?

The Word of God provides us with the answers to all our earthly questions. Many say I cannot understand it, or it is too difficult for me to read. Thinking this sometimes will often lead to even more resentment, and bitterness towards it. It is the Lord Jesus Christ and the Father that provide you with the key to understanding his Word, you provide the humble willing heart.

The Bible says the Holy Spirit leads to all Truth and Understanding, the Bible is the Word, or the Cornerstone for this foundation. It is The Holy Spirit is who unlocks the information in the Bible allowing you to hear and see, spiritually.

Many go to church seeking answers, I would ask you what is your preacher saying? What does he teach, what qualifies him to teach; Bible college? Does he give you a prayer to say and then tell you that you are now a Child of God? Does he know where America is in the Bible, what can he tell you about walking in Holiness, denying self, or sacrifice? There are many variants of degrees (of temperatures) of pastors and churches (just like people). Some preach varying degrees of Truth; this is dangerous because people will not get the complete picture of Him, and they become lulled to sleep. What it does do is that it puts you in a false sense of security in which most will fall back into a sinful life forgetting quickly their devotion that they had confessed. Some will reflect and say, I am forgiven, and I can live like I want. (this was me; this was exactly me so the finger I am pointing is at myself first). Worse some preach, a feel-good message, of how God wants you to be successful here in the earth. Success here on earth is fine, but it should not be your focus, but put Christ first and everything else will follow. Repentance of sin is never mentioned, in fact it is discouraged, they say God loves you as you are. This is a lie, you can go to God in any condition, yes, but he makes you into a new creature, he makes the changes in a willing participants heart. He then fashions you into a vessel to be used by him for his purpose.

Do your churches preach Revelation, Hosea (which is mostly about America), Daniel, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Haggi, Genesis? You must get off milk, and understand the deeper Truths (this builds faith). The Mark of the Beast; what is it? Probably very important because if it is taken, you are no longer redeemable in God's sight. So what is it? Why is it so important to God? You must learn about this because it is already here. What about the children disappearing first, where is that in the Bible? What was the first sin; was it eating fruit? All this information and much more is here for you to glean and understand.

According to Wikipedia the human nervous system uses electricity to send signals effecting how we move think and feel. Move. Think. Feel. We live in a programmed world that has affected us on a level that is almost impossible to believe. We have to accept responsibility for this, yes, because again the answers have always been here, and it only takes one cry out to our Savior Jesus Christ, to begin the healing and reprogramming process to see the Truth and build that relationship. Instead we live a life with zero meaning; sleep, work, buy, eat, sleep, with an occasional vacation here and there. We fiddle with phones, Xbox, computers, and the latest technological gadgets. Notice how we grow old, and nothing physically about us gets better, however, technology advancement is off the charts? By design? Whose design? The Tree of (tech)KNOWLEDGE(-ee) of Good and Evil. The lifespan of humanity has actually dropped, but yet technological advancement is off the charts, can this be explained? Sin is overcoming the planet, and technology is booming, due to us reaching for that Tree.

This leads me to “Choice”, to understand you have to go back to when the earth was created and before that. In heaven there was a rebellion, you were there, although you do not remember. (yes, you were there) Satan led a rebellion in which a 1/3rd part of Heaven’s angels followed him and completely embraced him and his plan to be like gods doing it their own way. The fallen were cast out of heaven, to the lower parts of heaven (space) and reside there until judgement commences; there they pose as extraterrestrial beings, again lying to us all (we have been groomed to believe this; Hollywood). From this position they influence mankind to go against God, sending spirits of all sorts to further us away from Him and directly influencing us. Doing the math, this leaves 2/3rd population still in heaven, some filled with seeds of doubt about the Plan of God or thoughts of embracing the plan of satan. You are brought here through the waters (amniotic fluid ie to forget, amnesia). Judgement of our hearts occurred in heaven and we all stood in front of God and our hearts were weighed and examined. God has postponed sentence and execution, because the earth is the final testing ground to make the final choice. Earth is a mixture of heaven and hell, but is quickly becoming like hell because of the choices people are making. The choice you make here is eternal, and all are tested upon making their choice for Christ. Once satan is done with his time, he will finally be sentenced and execution of sentence will commence with him, the fallen, and those who take the mark.

Not only this, but satan has also inserted his seed here on this planet among us to strongly influence, those who have not made their final decision. You know them as Hollywood, the elite, corporate leadership, medical leaders, educational leaders, excreta. They are strategically placed to influence many and greatly affect their areas of influence. The enemy has given them the world, and has made them promises he knows he cannot fulfill. Still, God uses them to test our loyalties in hopes we will see and question their motives thus leading us back to the Father through the Son. The enemy is quick to counter this with the label of conspiracy theorist in which most look extremely foolish to others and since mainstream churches are not exposing these things, people like myself are in a situation of great anguish for people who are asleep to the Truth.

Faith will build, as you take on knowledge and understanding your Faith will build. God will test all of his followers, as previously stated, this is a testing ground, nothing more (not your home). Focus on the eternal and not the temporary, you could buy a new Porsche today and tomorrow get it scratched, and its worth has just declined and likely will not rebound. You can also feed a homeless person today, and what you do for Jesus will reflect forever and be an example for all of humanity and the Kingdom of Heaven.

My prayer is simple, Lord open their eyes, prick their hearts to repentance, so that they may see, give them strength, and peace in their hearts knowing your Word is True, and that our home is not of this world and soon we will be reunited together and our reunion will be forever. Much Love. (Click Below)
